My name is Atalie Williams. I grew up in Richmond and always loved the small town feel of it. I moved to Arizona for two years to attend college and ended up transferring back to Missouri, where I graduated from the University of Central Missouri with a Bachelors in Communication Studies. I moved back to Richmond three years ago and I am so grateful that I did. My daughter, Haizley, is four years old, and I can't imagine raising my little girl anywhere else. I am an active Rotarian and absolutely love donating my time to an organization out of Kansas City called City Union Mission. I am a realtor, and focus most of my business within the Richmond community.

Greg Krueger is the Director of Operations at Henkel in Richmond. He is originally from a community about the size of Richmond near Milwaukee Wisconsin. Greg received his Masters in International Administration at Central Michigan University. Greg enjoys fishing and traveling in his leisure time as well as antique cars. He is looking forward to serving the Richmond area and becoming more involved in our community.
